FRANCESCO LEFT AT THE POST THEN DAVID GIDEON MAKES

Hockaway Stakes for April Shower-Lady Albereraft Wins at Good Odds for Bennington—Ethics Defeats Kilegram-Only One Favorite in Front.

KILLING WITH CLONMELL.

Another favorite was left at the post at Aqueduct yesterday and the mishap inci-dentally helped David Gideon and his friends to accomplish a great "killing," not only in the betting ring, but in the poolrooms all over the country. This time it was C. F. Dwyer's Francesco, by St. Maxim-Frances S., a high-class three-year-old, that received the worst of the start, while Gideon's colt Clonmell, by His Highness—Nettie, got away fly-ing in front of his field and was never headed. It all happened in the second race, for three-year-olds at five and a half furlongs. Franco was the natural favorite, opening at to 1. But in spite of the fact that the St. Maxim colt's owner and the followers of form accepted these odds readily the price ecceded half a point. Clonmell was first moted at 6 to 1, but the money came pouring to the ring at the last moment, which forced the price down to fours. Eddie Busch was also extensively backed for the place, while both Peninsula and Khitai were both cut down in value. Eleven went to the post, and when Starter Cassidy sprung the barries it, with Francesco standing still. Francesco never had a chance to get up, while Clonmell held his advantage and won easily by two lengths in 1:07 4-5. Eddie Busch was second, a length before Khitai, who beat Peninsul a half a length. The stewards' stand was soon surrounded by a disgruntled crowd of speculators. Mr. Cassidy was called up for an explanation and informed the stewards hat there was no reason in the world why Cochran should not have gotten Francesco away with the others. He said that the colt was standing still facing the barrier, and that he was not interfered with in any way. Later was announced that Cochran had been set down for the balance of the meeting. Just what Gideon and his friends won is a matter conjecture, but that it footed up well into the thousands there can be no doubt.

Following in Gideon's path, Newton Bennington executed a stunning coup with his fleet filly Lady Albercraft, by Albert-Lady Craft, in the third event, a selling race for two-year-olds at four and one-half furlongs. The talent was utterly in the dark as to this good thing, for the form players turned their money onto J. J. McCafferty's Golden Garter colt Kennard, who was a 6 to 5 favorite, and H. T Griffin's Fidelio gelding Florestan who went up from evens to 9 to 5. Mr. Benning-ton's commissioners did their work quietly and well. They snapped up 12 to 1 all over the ring and kept putting down the wagers until Lady Albercraft closed at sevens. In the first scramble Lady Albercraft left her field with a mighty rush and at the quarter she had a lead of five lengths. Kenpard was second, with Adele Harding pounded tained this order to the finish, Mr. Benning. ton's smart filly receiving the verdict by length, a comparatively easy victory. Her tained this order to the finish, Mr. Bennington's smart filly receiving the verdict by a length, a comparatively easy victory. Her time was 0:56 -5, which might have been faster had she been further extended. Kennard took the place from Adele Harding by three lengths, the latter being a length before Florestan, who got away poorly. Many turfmen were inclined to believe that the winner may prove a match for John Boden's Rosetint, who has to date a clean record of triumph. The feature of the card in point of financial value was the Rockaway Selling Stakes for three-year-olds and upward at seven furlongs. It proved to be the talent's hardest fall during the day. John J. McCafferty's The Puritan was so well thought of that he was always an odds-on favorite at 3 to 5. Morokanta was also fancied enough to be cut from threes to 13 to 5. The friends of Jack Joyner, however, had something better up their sleeves, as it turned out, for they backed April Shower all over the ring at sevens. It was said that Gideon was among those who placed substantial commissions on the colt. The start was fair for all, with April Shower quickly showing the way. Along the backstretch Joyner's colt had a great flight of speed and led to the turn by a length and a half. Then Burns went to work on The Puritan, and McCafferty's colt moved up so swiftly that he seemed about to assume the lead as the head of the stretch was reached. Booker, however, proceeded to put up a magnificent ride on April Shower. The latter under the whip carried the Puritan wide and seemed to bear out on him all the way to the wire. In a driving finish April Shower was the winner by a head, his time being 127 3-5. Morokanta was two lengths away. Burns immediately went before the stewards with a protest of foul, but it was not allowed after Booker had been heard. Young Dwyer pulled out his losses on Francesco when his Charaxus colt Ethics defeated Newton Bennington's Kilogram in the fifth pace, a handicap at a mile and 70 yards Incidentally Mir. Bennington dropped some Winnie O'Connor landed the first race, for beaten platers at seven furiongs, with H. R. Schaffer's Satire. The coit was second choice at 8 to 5, the talent making Mr. Bennington's Jack De Mund the favorite at a point lower Thirteen horses faced the starter and all of them got off well. "Father Bill" Daly's Locket, at to 1, made the running to the turn, where Satire collared him and Shea also moved out of the bunch with Marothen. Coming down the stretch Satire drew away and won easily by three lengths in 128 1-6. Marothen was whipped into the place, a head better than Locket, who beat Jack De Mund by a neck. The latter was clearly short.

De Mund by a neck. The latter was clearly short. The only winning favorite of the day homed up in the last race, for maiden two-vear-olds at four and a half furlongs. There were twelve in the field, Mamie Worth being the choice at 13 to 5. Baikal, Mount Risco, Tugal Bey and Impetuous were also laden with big money. At one period of the race "Father Bill" baly's Bobbinet, 15 to 1, looked like the winner, as she had a fair lead, but when the final rush came Garrigan carried Mamie Worth to the van and made her win, ridden out, by a neck in 6.56 1-5. George W. Daseb, 40 to 1, secured the place under a ferree drive from Landry by a head from Impetuous. The summaries. PERST MACH

CHICAGO. April 20.—Owenton and Dewey, two American Derby candidates, furnished the only good finish at Lakeside this afternoon in the third race. Owenton was favorite at 1 to 2, while 3 to 1 was laid on Dewey. Owenton secured a good lead in the early part of the race and maintained it to the end, although Dewey came very fast in the last sixteenth and finished a nose behind Owenton. Meney Muss and Maggie Davis fought out the fourth race in the stretch, the former winning by half a length. Summaries:

LONDON, April 29.—Play in the amateur golf championship tournament opened at Hoylake to-day. Twenty-eight players started in the first round. Twenty-four frew byes and entered the second round this afternoon. The weather is splendid. A'good many players are using the American lively ball John Ball, Robert Maxwell, Lovel, F. Bramston, G. Smith, Pease, Aitken, Darwin, Ellis, Lasson, Glover, McLeod, Hillyard, Hutchinson, Dick, Hutchinson and Thomson all wor their matches. The second round produced a fine match between Maxwell and John Ball, Maxwell winning by two holes. Robb beat Low by up and 2 to play. Hilton, the present champion, gave evidence of being out of form. He succeeded n defeating Blaine only after a tie at the wenty-first hole. Other winners in this round were Craik, Gilroy, Gairdner, Crowther, Blyth, Watson and Lawson. GOLF GOSSIP.

Women to Begin Play at the Fasex County

To-morrow the women of the Essex County Country Club of Orange, N. J., will meet in a round robin tournament, each contestant to meet each other contestant, whoever having the highest percentage of wins se-curing the trophy. The rounds will be at the handicap match play and they will be on for every Tuesday and Thursday during the month.

The semi-annual contest for the G. P. Morosini cup, open to all amateur golfers, will begin on Saturday at the public links at Van Cortlandt Park. An eighteen-hole medal play round will be decided, the first sixteen to keep on at match play, the final to be at thirty-six holes. Entries close on Saturday morning and should be sent to John O'Connell, at Van Cortlandt Park.

The annual spring tournament of the Columbia Golf Club of Washington, open to all members of clubs in the U. S. G. A., will be held on May 15, 16 and 17. Entries will close the evening before each event. They should be addressed to the Secretary, Charles E. Howe, 1,405 G street, Washington.

On Saturday in a match with Harry C. Duval George Low drove a ball 300 yards at Dyker Meadow, by actual measurement. The drive was an American recorded record, and was so reported. Good things never happen singly, however, for on the same day Allan Kennaday, the amateur champion of the New Jersey State Golf Association, drove the first green at the Montelair Golf Club, the distance being 350 yards. There is a decided slope to help the roll at Montelair, yet the record must supplant that made by Low.

One of Brooklyn's most fashionable events, the annual reception of the Dyker Meadow Golf Club, has been fixed for Thursday after-noon, May 15, when the event on the links will be a mixed foursome handloap.

will be a mixed four-some handicap.

Princeton, April 29.—The team which will represent Princeton in the Intercollegiate golf tournament at Garden City next week was announced to-day, as follows: W. H. I. Wilson, '02: G. T. Brokaw, '02: J. W. Baker, '04: L. H. Conklin, '04: A. Poole, '04, and F. O. Reinhardt, '05. Percy Pyne, 2d, the best player in the university, who won the individual championship in the intercollegiate tournament two years ago, will not be allowed to play on account of a condition. His absence will be sorely felt, although the team, as it is made up now, is resarded here as one of the strongest that has ever played for Princeton. Reinhardt, it is thought, will be in the race for the individual championship. He is a freshman from the St. Paul's School and has been playing record golf all the spring. The team will leave here to-morrow to compete in the Garden City open tournament, which will begin on Thursday.

John Piening's opponent at the London Cheatre last night was Orville W. Holmes of Brooklyn, a clever heavyweight. The Butcher Boy undertook to throw Holmes inside of fifteen minutes or forfeit $50 Holmes sent after John pluckily, but Plening soon secured a firm hammer lock. He had Holmes h a very trying position and it seemed as f the Brooklyn had would be thrown. But he got away from the hold and the crowd was surprised. He did this several times and Piening was worried Finally Piening secured a haif-Nelson and three his man. The time was 6 minutes and 35 seconds.

WASHING BROOKLYNS. Other League Games Postponed -Washington Defeats Philadelphia, Detroit Outplays St. Louis and Chicago Downs Cleveland in American League.

The only National League game yesterday was between New York and Brooklyn and was won by the former Rain prevented the Philadelphia-Boston and Pittsburg-St. Louis games. In the American League, Washington won from Philadelphia, Detroit defeated St. Louis and Chicago disposed of Cleveland. The Baltimore-Boston game was postponed on account of rain. The National League result and record follow:

New York, 6 Brooklyn, 0 At other cities-Rain

NEW YORK, 6; BROOKLYN, 0.

NEW YORK, 6; BIOOKLYN, 0.

The New Yorks beat the Brooklyns at the Polo Grounds yesterday in damp going as handily as they did the day before with dry footing. The game yesterday was cut short by rain in the sixth inning, but while they were at it the New Yorks made the job a complete one by whitewashing the Brooklyns. They took three out of the series of four, and unless the Brooklyns play with more skill and animation than they did yesterday they are booked for a hurried flight to the rear end. Sheckard played left fleid for the Brooklyns yesterday and was about the only one who could gauge Kennedy's double in appearance, except for carrying a bit more weight, was being touched up lively by the New Yorks. What with bunting and lining the ball out and the Brooklyns bunching errors while New York grouped hits the Harlemites had an easy afternoon.

grouped hits the Harlemites had an easy afternoon.

In the third inning Kennedy hit to Dahlen and McCreery dropped Dahlen's throw. Van Haltren sent a liner to centre and Irwin sat down on the wet grass trying to field Brodie's bunt. This filled the bases, and when Irwin fumbled Lauder's hard lick Kennedy scored. Doyle filed to Sheckard and the power of the latter's arm cautioned Van Haltren to stay at third. He scored when Smith singled, Brodie scored on Jackson's force of Smith and Lauder scored on Bean's ground hit to right Bowerman. Kennedy and Brodie singled in the fourth inning and Lauder hit for two bases, two runs resulting.

The nearest the Brooklyns came to scoring was in the sixth inning. With one out Sheckard landed for a two-bagger, but was run down by Lauder, Smith and Kennedy, Lauder making a pretty scoop of Dolan's stinging wallop. In the fourth inning Doyle raised a foul fly, which McCreery took on the run. The ball twisted out of McCreery's hands, but he caught it in the crook of his elbow. The score:

bon Boy. 2:06, after a hard battle with his field. This is the first and only $10,000 event as yet opened to pacers, and is for the 2:10 class.

Scott Hudson has two green trotters in his string, Chase, by Norval, and Rhythmic, by Oakland Baron, that showed workouts in 2:10 last season. Neither has started as yet and Rhythmic never was tried to a sulky but once. He is stone blind and always was worked to a road cart, to which vehicle he trotted a mile in 2:124. Jerterman, 2:24%, a pacer in the Hudson stable, paced the Terre Haute, Ind. track in 2:08%, consequently he is overflowing with stake material Last season he won more money with one horse—Audubon Boy—than did any one trainer with one starter, and his year in prospect looks to be very bright indeed if his horses but keep their form.

To-day at the Blue Front Stables, in East Twenty-fourth street, are to be auctioned such as Parker 8, 2:004; The Corporal, 2:124, with which Ed Geers won the Detroit $10,000 M. and M. Stake a few seasons ago: Ottinger, 2:095, the crack Philadelphia pole and road horse; Coast Boy, 2:105, that Dr. David Randell owned at his death and drove to Speedway victories, and about 180 others.

At Los Angeles, Cal, the brown mare Sweet Marie, no public record, trotted a repeat to a wagon last Friday in 2:12. She won a matinee wagon race last season there in 2:13%, and all spring offers have been wired her fortunate owner, but, although extending to $6,000, he has steadfastly refused to treat with the parties, and yet has made no preparations as to racing her. Sweet Marie is by McKinney, 2:114, the most successful Wilkes sire ever in California, and wonderfully promising six-year-old Pleasanton trainers consider her a second Dolly Dillon, 2:07, and better behaved than the daughter of Sidney Dillon. Dolly Dillon went a repeat mile Tuesday in 2:14, the last half in 1:00%, yet did not win her race as Onward Silver defeated her.

and one of $1,500, for 2:14 pacers. The nominations for the $3,000 stakes are transferable until Sept. 8, on which date the horse is to be named. The horses for the other stakes are to be named May 28. The prize stake of $10,000, opened in 1800 for yearlings of that year, is to be ritted this fall, as also the two-year-old division of the Matrons Stake, opened the same year, $2,000 for trotters and $1,000 for pacers. The regular purses for the meeting will be announced later. The Matrons Stake of $10,000, which closed on April 14, for two and three-year-old divisions, is announced filled with 23 entries, not so many as hoped for, but they are widely distributed, no one farm having a long list. Nervous, irritable, melancholy and suffering pain, such people soon make their own lives and the lives of their friends unbearable; more unhappiness, business failures, divorces and suicides being traceable to indigestion than to all other dis-

Because the health, life and strength of every organ in the human body comes through the digestive organs. These once diseased, some part of the body must suffer. If it be that part of the stomach and bowels which supplies nourishment to the nerves, the nerves must suffer, and so on; the larger the surface diseased, the more organs affected.

To decompose food with digestive ferments is an injury rather than a help, for while it may ease the painful attempts of these organs to digest food, decomposition takes away all nourishment and thus weakens the whole body. To use nerve tonics is just as foolish, for the diseased parts cannot carry these tonics to the nerves any more than they can the nourishment from food.

To sum up the whole matter, there is but one way by which indigestion can be permanently cured, and this is by healing the diseased digestive organs themselves.

Among all the cures and treatments sold there is but one which has for its sole object the healing of the diseased organs. This is MI-O-NA, the active principle of the Taro plant, which, used as a vegetable daily by the natives of Hawaii, has prevented dyspepsis from becoming known n that country.

Mi-O-NA heals the diseased digestive organs themselves. It works quickly and effectively, the most confirmed dyspeptic being able to est anything fit for human food within a week's time after taking the first tablet. Not only this, but he can feel health and strength returning to the starved nerves, weak muscles and debili-
